

Associate Membership Application

The undersigned here applies to be accepted as an Associate Member of the Executive Council of Homeowners. ECHO reserves the right to refuse membership to any firm or person not meeting the standards set by the Board of Directors of the Executive Council of Homeowners.

If accepted, the undersigned agrees to comply with the following conditions:

Standards of Membership

1. I certify that the firm or person named below has a direct interest in the successful operation of common interest housing developments.
2. I agree to support ECHO in its member service programs and to assist ECHO in its membership solicitations of homeowner associations.
3. I agree to abide by a high standard of professional conduct and ethics as may be expressed by the ECHO Board of Directors and to operate in the best interest of member homeowner associations.

4. Associate members in violation of the standards and ethics are subject to censure and termination of membership on the recommendation of their peers within their professional resource panels and by action of the ECHO Board of Directors.

Membership Terms and Conditions

1. Annual dues of $425 are payable with your application for membership. If your application is declined, the full payment will be refunded. After the first year, members will be billed annually in the anniversary month of joining. Membership of an associate member who fails to pay dues will be automatically terminated 90 calendar days after the dues become delinquent; members terminated may be reinstated upon payment of delinquent dues.

2. Each member business is entitled to receive one subscription to the ECHO Journal. Additional subscriptions for employees of the business are available for $50 per year.
3. Membership may be terminated by written notice to the ECHO office. No refunds of dues will be made for memberships that are terminated early.
4. Adjustments of membership dues may be made from time to time by the ECHO Board of Directors.
5. ECHO never releases its mailing list to outside parties.
