

Individual Membership Application

Terms & Conditions

Individual Membership - $75

1. Annual dues are payable in advance. The first year's dues must be included with this application. Thereafter, members will be billed annually in the anniversary month of joining.
2. Memberships will be terminated 30 calendar days after dues become delinquent. Members terminated may be reinstated upon payment of delinquent dues.
3. Memberships may be terminated by written notice to the ECHO office. No refunds of dues will be made for memberships that are terminated early.
4. Adjustments of membership dues may be made from time to time by the ECHO Board of Directors.
5. Members are entitled to receive a subscription to the ECHO Journal, to access and/or download free membership content, and to receive membership discounts on events and publications.
6. Individual membership is limited to individuals living in homeowner associations. Professionals serving common interest developments may not become individual members.
